CANTON NOTES.

(From Our Chinese Correspondented

CANTON, Feb. 18,

BUSINESS BETTER. A walk in the Canton streets yesterday and to day disclosed that nearly all the larger firms are resuming business as asual, and the fear expressed some weeks before the Chinese New Year that a nums or would close fortunately did not come true. Interviews with 'leading merchants show that not more than twenty percent, of the busipessifrus made a profit isst year; all blamed the floods, the rebel activities, the war, or the piracies. Collection, however, was good, | Revenue Fire Branch..... as the firms did their business mostly on cash basis, giving credit only to the raust secured customers. Cash was plentful at all native banks at the end of the year. Exporting houses suffered most, it is believ. ed. Last year the export trade was more than twenty per cent. less than in previous years. To most of the persons seen, the depreciation of Government notes has not caused as much suffering as generally a lieved. They said that only three who speculated on them were the real sufferers.

OFFICIAL CHANGES AND COUSTP. Commissioner of Finance Yam Gar Chi formally transferred his office to the acting commission r. Tacytn Chiang Guie Yi, of Yuh-hai Circuit, yesterday. According to inside circles, Commissioner Yam had to DEAK TRAMWAYS COMPANY, go because he could not work well with the governor-general: Now it is learned that Commissioner Yam had to declare himself in favour of gambling because of pressure from some one higher up. Some reports have it that the present governor-gonoral may resign pretty soon. Some weeks ago some one had worked for the transfer of the governor general and the keeping of the commissioner of finance. Now appears tou governor-general's friends had the stronger pull.

A MODELATE PRESS. The vernacular press resumed publication this morning, after their ten day. New Year holilay. In commenting on the Sino-Japaneme negotiations, they are exceedingly moderate, and the lookers for sepsational discussions on the subject were much disappointed. It is believed that the local press know that the Governor-General is friendly to Japans and is much under the influence of the local Japaness consult that their comments may be taken exception to by either one; and that a suspension of publication may result. Moreover, not one out of righteen Cantoness seems to realize what is ucing on up a loking. The other day an attempt was made by one on his New Year greating tour to discuss the matter with whomseever he met and he was willing to tell the correspondent that not one out of eighteen he "poke to could converse on the topic of Jupaness demands on China. Thirteen had never heard of such a thing Those spoken to are not coolie-, but men of a family, or business men who have homes or business offices to receive calls.

NEW MANDARIN SCHOOL A school will soon be opened in the Law College of Canton, a public school, to teach Pekineso, so that the students of the College and otners may learn the national language. Nowadays many lawyers in Canton annuot practice because all judges now in the courts have to be non-Caritoners As Gantonese lawyers, unless speaking Pekinese, caunot make their views known to the court, they can be of no service to the public. Morsover, the old-time judges now in power care very little about lawyers.

The activities of the Press Censorship are astonishingly extensive. From conscring the weather forecasts, it was the natural step to the censoring of weather experiences. SUCCESSFUL BRITISH ENCOUNTERS.

Losbox, Feb. 19, 2.5 p.m. The Press Bureau has issued a balletin from Field Marshal Sir John French, in which he states that the enemy has displayed considerable activity during the past few days to the south-east of Tpres and that the fighting there has sometimes been severe.

At one or two points the enemy succeeded in occupying some of our tronches, but he was driven but by counter-attacks.

Sixty Corman dead at one place were left on the ground. We blew up a German trench and took a number of prisoners. Our troops counter-attacked with great gallantry despite the water-logged ground and tremches.

The Germans made a night attack on the 15th inst. at Yppes Canal and on the following night a similar attack near Neuve Chappelle. Both pathians, and counter-attacked successfully, attacks were easily repulsed with loss to the enemy.

All the ground, we recently gained has been strengthened and held without difficulty.

Our actillary to the south of the Lys effectively dealt with the Corman chatteries' and our aeroplanes, in valuable reconnaissances, successfully engaged the enemy, a Briton attacking two Germans, which o resulted in the destruction of a German aeroplane.

THE ITALIAN OPERA

COMPANY. This excellent Company produced

Gounod's immortal "Faust" at the Theatre Royal last night before a very erge audience. M: Dagradi appeared in the title role, M. Mauceri was the "Mephistopheles," M. Scamuzzi "Valen-Gonsalez as the fair "Marguerite." With such splendid artistes in the caste, it seems superfluous to say that the opera was from beginning to end a great success. story of the aged philosopher and alchemist, rejuvenated by Mephistopheles, and of the heartrending misfortunes of the gentle Marguerite, blending so exquisitely with Gounod's immortal music, was beau ifully interpreted by and chorus slike. Mile. Gonsalez gave a fine performance of her part, M. Dagradi's Faust was also very satisfactory, while M. Maucori and M. Scamuzzi in their respective parts achieved a really great artistic triumph. Mention should also be made of Mile. Piccolo's "Marthe" which was also a very creditable performance. M. Scamuzzi's singing of the enchanting lyric "Even bravest Hearts." and the "Soldier's Chorus" by the male voices of the chorus were among the most enjoyable items of the evening.

To-night the Company produce "Car-men." To-morrow they visit Macan and Pretwo performances, returning to Hone kong to play. " Mignon " on "Monday

TRAINING NOTES.

The course was on the slow side early this morning after the heavy dew overnight, but considerably improved under a warm, drying sun as the morning were on, and was quite good going and fast by half past eight and nine o'clock.

The sympathy of all true lovers of the 'King of Sports" will go out to those connected with "Sammie," the little after his "quarters" on Friday morning. This pony was coming on nicely and had masses. quite a chance of picking up one of the minor races before the meeting was over. Coronet and Swapes, the two which were Wild Cat put in : dashing finish in 30.3, but the other quarters were slow; 37, 40.2, 34.3, 30.3 a 2.21.2. Figian Chief was taken easily as usual, on the sand, accompanied Roman Chief. Bluebottle was going tional work with great vigor. The effort short and stiff. This pony does not into the need the masses seeking to throw prove; rather the reverse. Gamester covered a mile in 2.10, but the style of his finish was not first class. A mile is point. These people are seeking to do probably his limit, but he is sure to prove a rattler over that distance. Aldwyth as usual put up a govi performance, but their financial support; which give much was not ridden unt. Imphabl also hopefulness to the movement. moved well. Dreadneught Dahlia does not give the appearance that he is going the pace he does, but 2.49.4, last half I.M. last quarter 20.4 must be considered an exceptionally good gallop. He will be hard to best over the long distance races. English Chief and Irish Chief wont half a mile together in 32.1, 39.9; the somer held while the latter was hard ridden. The same applied to the Genes: the ' mary-employ " was going easy down the home straight while the sub, had to be driven along to keep up. Lochmaben did a very nice gailing over a mile; 34.2. 34.3. 34.3. 30.1 = 2.13.4. It was not the time to much as the style in which her moved and the way he answered when asked to make his offers down the home straight. Winning Hazard with Mr. Moller up went very well, 2.15.3 last quarter 31.1. We shall probably hear of him on the second or third day. Ideal Dahlia easily bout Flame Dahlia; it was the other way round about a forenight ago: Majestio Dahlia did good time, but again he Enished as if he did not like it. In remains to be seen, whether he will go the page and "stick" it in company. Coronet finished tired after going a mile. Since going a bis "dicky" he has not yet got back into form. He will probably be as his best'en the third day. Thief's performance was the "star." gallop of the morning. Maybey with Mr. Seth up did a very nice gallop, 2.12.2, last quarter 31.2, finishing nicely but not unduly At the adjourned Criminal Sessions this pressed. Liberty Dahlin finished tired; 2.51.1. 31.1. The Duke Duhlia's per-

.The accounts for the year are not as satisfactory as at one time they looked like beings the increase in revenue from renta being only 780247.17 as compared with 10125 This increase would have been considerably larger but for the War which broke out in August. "Amongst our tenants we numbered many military officers and Germans who from one cause of another had to eachte our houses suddenly with the result that during the last three months of the year many of our houses which under ordinary circumstances would have been rent producing, brought in nothing. Signs of improvement are now manifest, but it will probably be come time before normal conditions are reached. The increase to the Insurance Reserve Fund of $2,655.40 is represented by expired fire risks waterwritten by ourselves. Property accessors up $49,442.84 the addition representing payments to contractors for new buildings. The building operations now in progress necessitated our burrowing more money on mortgages. ENGLANDEIN WAR TIME. MEN IN THE MAKING AT WINDSOR

Writing in The Times on the subject of England in Time of War a special correspondent says :--- . To one looking up the walls of Windsor Castle it is distioult to remember that medern artillery could blow the mighty mara to dust in hulf an hour, and that the imprognable fortress of to-day is a little hole in the ground with some men of the right sert in it. given up for extra drills, skirmishing, sad

Such a hole in the ground may be

Such Etonians were discovered digging scientimen, made or still in the making, may fically in the still and heavy soil of a be seen in large quantities about the piece of waste land such a trench as streets of Windsor, " Windsor in the Major Warre had described. It was the winter-is there a quieter place? Windsame spirit which quickly raised £060 for cor still seems quiet to one who has seen the National Relief Fund and collected Salisbury and Winchester; but a walk from pocket-money in a week nearly £100 through Windser is enough to disabuse to provide clothing, books, and so forth any Londoner of the idea that London for the Belgian boys housed by the masto-day is full of soldiers. One noticeable thing in these provincial towns is the lack of recruiting bills. Those ex hibited would reach a large total if they were counted; by comparison with the number and variety shown in London they are few and modest. Lord Kitchener does not point from shop windows a monstrous finger (laughably like the savage Balkan Officer who used to accuse the London public of not having seen la certain comic opera); nor does the na tion call in any but dignified terms for the services of its men of military age. When the war first broke out, you are told in Windser as elsewhere, recruiting bills were more frequent. Now the towns seem able to do their share without insistent urging. Windsor, with crack regiments always in her barracks, has always given freely of her men; and the long and growing list outside one of her churches seems to show that in the prosent crisis she and Eton are doing their part well. Perhaps, after all, there is no recruiting appeal so good as a living soldier, even when dressed in khakis. If it be so. Windsor deeds no bills on the wall or in the window .- Many of her own sons are now far away, digging trenches in Norfolk, or still further, earning their share in Sir John French's praise of the Berkshires, which has thrilled many hearts round the Castle and beside the river. And the streets of Windsor are full of strangers, who are learning how kindly a home, it only for a time, Wind.

THE NEW INDUSTRY. -The men are bill ted upon the town: and their presence has called into being a new industry, the letting of rooms. 163 The War Office grunts generous terms -terms which are said to fill the keepers of seaside lodgings with envy. But it must be remembered that places like Windsor have not, so to speak, the plant for the industry standing idle, as have THE DIVIDEND DECLARED for the the senside places in the winter, and must upset their homes and habits pretty considerably in order to house the men. And like many other towns (among them Slough, close at hand), Windsor doe much for the men she likes to call he guests" beyond what the War Office pays for. Princess Alexander of Teol and a committee of ladies have arranged the Corn Exchange and the reception room at the Guildhall as recreation room for soldiers and non-commissioned officers, and very bright and cosy room; they make, with the writing-tables group ed round the historic pillars, the brigh curtains, the games and newspapers, and refreshments. The churches and schools the political clubs and institutes vie wit each other in offering hospitality an comfort. There are concerts and enter tainments; Mr. Fortescuo has lectured the glorious past of the Queen's West Surrey, who contribute to the number of Windsor's guesta. And this is only an example of what is going on in many places up and down the country.

At Eton, beyond the bridge, the school displays a huge recruiting appeal, an devotes itself pertinaciously to the tas of preventing its elder pupils from rush Uphelstered Drawing Room and Bedroom ing in a body to take commissions.
